Shakespeare Primary School & Children's Centre procedures for dealing with complaints

The majority of concerns from parents, carers and others are handled under the following general procedures.

The procedure is divided into three stages;

The Informal stage aims to resolve the concern through informal contact at the appropriate level in school.

Stage one is the first formal stage at which written complaints are considered by the head teacher or the designated governor, who has special responsibility for dealing with complaints.

Stage two is the next stage once stage one has been worked through. It involves a complaints appeal panel of governors.

LEA review where the LEA will review and comment upon the way we have dealt with your complaint.

How each of these stages operates is explained below:

Informal stage – your initial contact with the school

1. Many concerns will be dealt with informally when you make them known to us. The first point of contact should be your child's class teacher.
2. Once your concern is made known to us, we will see you, or contact you by telephone or in writing, as soon as possible. If it is necessary, all members of staff know how to refer to the appropriate person with responsibility for your particular issues. He or she will make a clear note of the details and will check later to make sure that the matter has been followed up.
3. Any actions or monitoring of the situation that has been agreed will be communicated clearly and we will confirm this in writing to you.
4. If necessary we will contact appropriate people who may be able to assist us with our enquiries into your concern.
5. We will normally update you on the progress of our enquiries within ten working days. Once we have responded to your concern, you will have the opportunity of asking for the matter to be considered further.
6. If you are still dissatisfied following this informal approach, your concern will become a formal complaint and we will deal with it at the next stage.

Stage one - formal consideration of your complaint

This stage in our procedures deals with written complaints. It applies where you are not happy with the informal approach to dealing with your concern, as outlined above.

1. Normally, your written complaint should be addressed to the head teacher. If, however, your complaint concerns the head teacher personally, it should be sent to the school marked "For the attention of the chair of governors" Mr P. Oddy.
2. We will acknowledge your complaint in writing as soon as possible after receiving it. This will be within three working days.
3. We will enclose a copy of these procedures with the acknowledgement.
4. Normally we would expect to respond in full within 15 working days but if this is not possible we will write to explain the reason for the delay and let you know when we hope to be able to provide a full response.
5. As part of our consideration of your complaint, we may invite you to a meeting to discuss the complaint and fill in any details required. If you wish, you can ask someone to accompany you to help you explain the reasons for your complaint.
6. The head teacher, or chair of governors Mr P. Oddy may also be accompanied by a suitable person if they wish.
7. Following the meeting, the head teacher, investigating officer or chair of governors Mr P. Oddy will, where necessary, talk to witnesses and take statements from others involved. If the complaint centres on a pupil, we will talk to the pupil concerned and, where appropriate, others present at the time of the incident in question.
8. We will normally talk to pupils with a parent or carer present, unless this would delay the investigation of a serious or urgent complaint, or where a pupil has specifically said that he or she would prefer the parent or carer not to be involved. In such circumstances, we will ensure that another member of staff, with whom the pupil feels comfortable, is present.
9. If the complaint is against a member of staff, it will be dealt with under the school's internal confidential procedures, as required by law.
10. The head teacher or chair of governors Mr P. Oddy will keep written/typed, signed and dated records of all meetings and telephone conversations, and other related documentation.
11. Once we have established all the relevant facts, we will send you a written response to your complaint. This will give an explanation of the head teacher's or chair of governors' Mr P. Oddy decision and the reasons for it. If follow-up action is needed, we will indicate what we are proposing to do. We may invite you to a meeting to discuss the outcome as part of our commitment to building and maintaining good relations with you.
12. The person investigating your complaint may decide that we have done all we can to resolve the complaint, in which case we may use our discretion to close the complaint at this point.
Please see the next page for further information about this process.
13. If you are unhappy with the way in which we reached our conclusions, you may wish to proceed to stage two, as described below.

Stage two - consideration by a governors appeal panel

- If the complaint has already been through stage one and you are not happy with the outcome as a result of the way in which the complaint has been handled, you can take it further to a governors appeal panel. This is a formal process, and the ultimate recourse at school level.
- The purpose of this arrangement is to give you the chance to present your arguments in front of a panel of governors who have no prior knowledge of the details of the case and who can, therefore, consider it without prejudice.

- However, the aim of a panel is not to rehear the complaint. It is there to review how the complaint has been investigated and to determine whether this has been conducted fairly. It is there to establish facts and make recommendations which will reassure you that we have taken the complaint seriously.

The governors appeal panel operates according to the following formal procedures:

1. The governing body will convene a panel of three governors and will aim to arrange for the panel meeting to take place within 20 working days.
2. You will be asked whether you wish to provide any further written documentation in support of your appeal.
3. The head teacher or complaint investigator will be asked to prepare a written report for the panel. The panel can request additional information from other sources if necessary.
4. You will be informed, at least five working days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. We hope you will feel comfortable with the meeting taking place in the school but we will do what we can to make alternative arrangements if you prefer.
5. With the letter, you will receive any relevant correspondence or reports regarding stage 1 and you will be asked whether you wish to submit further written evidence to the panel.
6. The letter will explain what will happen at the panel meeting and that you are entitled to be accompanied to the meeting. The choice of person to accompany you is your own, but it is usually best to involve someone in whom you have confidence but who is not directly connected with the school. They are there to give you support but also to witness the proceedings and to speak on your behalf if you wish.
7. If it is necessary in the interests of the ratifying the investigative process, the complaint investigator may, with the agreement of the chair of the panel, invite relevant witnesses directly involved in matters raised by you to attend the meeting.
8. The chair of the panel will bear in mind that the formal nature of the meeting can be intimidating for you and will do his or her best to put you at your ease.
9. As a general rule, no evidence or witnesses previously undisclosed should be introduced into the meeting by any of the participants. If either party wishes to do so, the meeting will be adjourned so that the other party has a fair opportunity to consider and respond to the new evidence.
10. The chair of the panel will ensure that the meeting is properly minuted. Please understand that any decision to share the minutes with you, the complainant, is a matter for the panel's discretion and you do not have an automatic right to see or receive a copy as the minutes are the property of the governing body. Since such minutes usually name individuals, they are understandably of a sensitive and, therefore, confidential nature.
11. Normally, the written outcome of the panel meeting, which will be sent to you, should give you all the information you require. If, however, you feel that you would like to have a copy of the minutes it would be helpful if you could indicate this in advance. If the panel is happy for the minutes to be copied to you, the clerk can then be asked maintain confidentiality in the minutes.
12. During the meeting, you can expect there to be opportunities for:

- The panel to hear you explain your case and your argument for why it should be heard at stage 2;
 - The panel to hear the complaint investigator's case in response;
 - you to raise questions via the chair;
 - you to be questioned by the complaint investigator through the chair; ▪ the panel members to be able to question you and the complaint investigator; ▪ you and the head teacher to make a final statement.
13. In closing the meeting, the chair will explain that the panel will now consider its decision and that written notice of the decision will be sent to you and the head teacher within three school days. All participants other than the panel and the clerk will then leave.
14. The panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented in order to:
- reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the case;
 - decide on the appropriate action to be taken, if necessary;
 - recommended, where appropriate, to the governing body changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that similar problems do not happen again.
15. The clerk will send you and the head teacher a letter outlining the decision of the panel. The letter will also explain that you are entitled to have the handling of the complaint reviewed by the LEA. That process is not strictly an appeal, as the local authority cannot direct the governing body in most general complaints cases. It is, however, an opportunity to seek the view of an official third party and the outcome, including any recommendations, may be helpful to you in seeking resolution of the complaint, through the Secretary of State for Education if necessary.
16. We will keep a copy of all correspondence and notes on file in the school's records but separate from pupils' personal records.

Closure of complaints

- Very occasionally, a school and/or the LEA will feel that it needs, regretfully, to close a complaint where the complainant is still dissatisfied.
- We, and the local authority where appropriate, will do all we can to help to resolve a complaint against the school but sometimes it is simply not possible to meet all of the complainant's wishes. Sometimes it is simply a case of "agreeing to disagree".
- If a complainant persists in making representations to the school – to the head teacher, designated governor, chair of governors or anyone else – or to the local authority, this can be extremely time-consuming and can detract from our responsibility to look after the interests of all the children in our care.
- For this reason, we are entitled to close correspondence (including personal approaches, as well as letters and telephone calls) on a complaint where we feel that we have taken all reasonable action to resolve the complaint and that the complaint has exhausted our official process. The local authority will support us in this position, and especially where the complainant's action is causing distress to staff and/or pupils.
- In exceptional circumstances, closure may occur before a complaint has reached stage two of the procedures described in this document. This is because a complaints panel takes considerable time and effort to set up and we must be sure that it is likely to assist the process of investigating the complaint.

The chair of governors Mr P. Oddy may decide, therefore, that every reasonable action has been undertaken to resolve the complaint and that a complaints review panel would not help to move things forward.

- This does not, of course, prevent you from referring your complaint to the LEA for a review of the way it has been handled, as described below.

Review by LEA

The following information is provided by Leeds children's services, Leeds City Council:

1. The LEA has limited powers to intervene in matters of school management and, along with central government, encourages parents and others with concerns about schools to discuss the issues firstly with staff at the school, as set out in stage one of the above procedures. The majority of concerns about children's education and welfare can be resolved in this informal way, which helps to build and maintain good relations between the school and parents.
2. The LEA can advise you on the route for expressing your concerns or making a complaint and can facilitate the resolution of the complaint by liaising with the school and governing body to ensure that procedures are followed and your concerns dealt with reasonably.
3. If you come to the LEA without first having gone through the above procedures, we will explain to you that you must go back to the school in the first instance and follow its procedures.
4. Our role in facilitating the resolution of complaints about schools is a carefully balanced one. We try to maintain an objective stance, giving you and the school the information and any guidance you need to move the matter forward.
5. We have an agreement with schools that, if you send us a written complaint about a school, we will normally forward the complaint to the school for attention. We would use our discretion not to do this if the written complaint includes information of a highly sensitive and/or personal nature, in which case our customer relations service would deal with it and contact the school in a discreet way.
6. It is difficult for us to address anonymous complaints, though we do check out any assertions made in them where they appear to be serious. The school has a right to know who is complaining about them and most situations can only be resolved if both sides can get together and work through the problem.
7. Where you have been through the school's internal complaints procedures (with or without recourse to a complaints review panel) and are still unhappy with the outcome or decision from the governing body you can either call the complaints support service on 0113 247 5688 to ask for advice, or you can write to the LEA enclosing full details of your complaint, including correspondence between yourself and the school and governing body.

Please address correspondence to:

The complaints support service

6th Floor East
Merrion House
110 Merrion Centre, Leeds
LS2 8DT

You can also e-mail your concerns to complaints.childrens@leeds.gov.uk

8. If appropriate, we will then conduct a Local Education Authority (LEA) review. This consists of an examination of the correspondence connected with the complaint and consideration of any statement from the governing body and head teacher about the way the complaint has been handled. We may also seek the views of other LEA staff who have contact with the school.
9. The purpose of the LEA review is to establish whether the governing body and complaint investigator (or designated governor) have ensured that:
 - reasonable procedures have been followed;
 - the complainant has been treated fairly;
 - there has been no breach of statutory regulations.
10. The customer relations service will put together a pack of relevant information for the review. A copy of the pack will be sent to all appropriate parties (including the head teacher, chair of governors, chair of the appeal panel and the complainant). All parties will be invited to check the pack and forward any information that they feel is not included. Please note this should be information that has been used to inform the outcome at stage one and two.

Any additional information received, will be circulated to all parties before the review is carried out.

11. The investigating officer will carry out a review of the case, according to the three criteria stated in note nine above. Please note this is a review and not a re-hearing of the case.
12. A statement should be sent within 15 school days (of the pack being confirmed as complete by all parties). The statement will be the investigating officer's review of the way the complaint has been handled and will give any appropriate recommendations for the school and the governing body to consider as a way forward.

The head teacher should be sent a copy of the statement, the day before it is sent to the complainant so that he/she is in a position to respond, if the complainant makes representation at the school.

14. If you wish to pursue your complaint beyond the local authority review, you can write to the Secretary of State for Education at the address shown below.

Secretary of State
Department for Education (DFE)
Castle View House

East Lane
Cheshire
WA7 2GJ

Please enclose with your letter to the DFE a copy of the LEA review outcome. This will save time in that the DFE will not need to ask for our view of what has happened.

We would advise parents that, unless the school and/or local authority is shown to have behaved unreasonably or not to have followed their own procedures, there is likely to be little further action that can be taken, as governing bodies are empowered to deal with many issues without reference to either the local authority or the Secretary of State.
