

SHINE Weekly Learning Update

Spring 1, Week 5

|                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Phonics | We are learning these graphemes and phonemes: w xWe are engaging with Rhyme Time.We are listening to and joining in with nursery rhymes.                                                           |
| Literacy | We are reading the story 'Two Homes'.We are exploring sensory story telling.We are using props and puppets to retell the story.We are drawings members of our family.Word Aware Word: play |
| Maths   | We are categorising and sorting objects based on their size.We are matching objects that are the same or not.We are counting to 5 using 1:1 correspondence.Concept Word: most                  |
| Communication and Language                                                                   | We are working on our individual Communication and Language targets in our SALT plans.                                                                                                                            |

