

Year 2 Weekly Learning Update

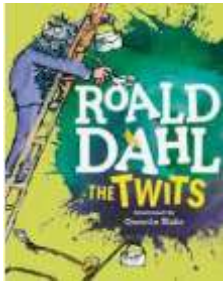

Summer 2 Week 3

Spelling

We are continuing to learn when to use an apostrophe to show possession
We are learning when to use the homophones whole hole
We are learning the common exception words through thought
We are writing words and sentences containing these spellings

English

We are reading 'The Twits' by Roald Dahl
We are recapping the different word types of noun verb adjective adverb
We are learning to spot these in a sentence
We are exploring the characters and the plot of The Twits
We are collecting noun phrases to describe what Mr Twit looks like

Maths

We are learning about time
We are learning how many seconds in a minute
We are learning how many minutes in an hour
We are learning how many hours in a day
We are telling the time to o'clock
We are telling the time to half past

